

JAMES GUELFF BODY ARMOR ACT OF 2001HON. BART STUPAK

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 13, 2001

Mr. STUPAK. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to introduce the James Guelff Body Armor Act of 2001 with my colleagues ASA HUTCHINSON and BOBBY SCOTT. I also want to commend Senator FEINSTEIN and Senator SESSIONS for introducing this legislation in the Senate, and Lee Guelff and the Fraternal Order of Police on their hard work in moving this legislation forward. Our bill is an important stride for law enforcement: it takes body armor out of the hands of criminals and gives law enforcement greater access to it.

This bill means a great deal to me. I have introduced similar legislation in the House for several years, and have been part of the ongoing effort to pass this bill. It is also rewarding that this year we have a bipartisan team in both the House and the Senate working to pass bill that is so important to our nation's law enforcement.

Special thanks are certainly owed to Lee Guelff, who has worked tirelessly on this issue since his brother was tragically killed by a shooter wearing body armor and a Kevlar helmet. Through his efforts, and that of countless police officers across the country, individual states are passing similar pieces of legislation. In fact, I am pleased to say that last year my own state of Michigan passed legislation banning the ownership or usage of body armor by convicted felons, and I commend the Michigan legislature for its action.

Law enforcement officers all over the country need protection from criminals wearing body armor. These offenders are impervious to the bullets of the police officers trying to stop them, yet these very same police officers incredibly often lack funds for their own body armor.

You may all recall the chilling video of a shootout at a bank robbery in California some years ago, where the perpetrators could not be brought down because they were wearing body armor. Eleven police officers and six civilians were injured in that 20 minute gunfight with the Los Angeles Police Department.

This is a threat to law enforcement, and this bill is needed. We cannot allow criminals to have an advantage over the men and women that put their lives on the line every day to protect society. The days of the Wild West are over, and gunfights have no place in our society. Criminals should not be able to face police without fear because they are protected by body armor, able to shoot at will.

Our bill enhances the penalties for crimes committed while wearing body armor, outlaws the possession of body armor by convicted felons and promotes the donation of surplus body armor to police. These measures will take away the criminals' advantage and return the power to the people that deserve it, our nation's law enforcement. I look forward to working with my colleagues on passing this important legislation this year.

TRIBUTE TO LIEUTENANT JUNIOR
GRADE JOHN G. ROTHROCKHON. GARY G. MILLER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 13, 2001

Mr. GARY MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise to commend Lieutenant Junior Grade John G. Rothrock as he receives the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal.

As a United States Navy Recruiting Liaison Officer, Lieutenant Junior Grade Rothrock is responsible for recruiting Naval Reserve Intelligence Officers. His hard work and dedication has been cited as contributing to the selection of his area as the "Area of the Year for FY 2000." In addition, his peers consider him to be a true team player who leads by example.

In addition to his Naval Reserve responsibilities, Lieutenant Junior Grade Rothrock serves as my Chief of Staff. His leadership abilities are evident in the management of both my DC and district offices. Lieutenant Junior Grade Rothrock cares not only about the professional performance of the staff members he directs, but also their personal well-being. This concern has contributed greatly to the stability of my highly motivated staff.

Lieutenant Junior Grade Rothrock, despite his youthful age, has already achieved a distinguished career on Capitol Hill. He has served Congressmen BALLENGER, GUTKNECHT, and PICKERING, as well as the House Committee on Science. Prior to moving to Washington, DC, his budding political expertise was utilized by several campaigns in his home state of North Carolina.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that this 107th Congress join me in congratulating Lieutenant Junior Grade John Rothrock as he receives the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal.

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. JOAN P.
ALTMANHON. MIKE McINTYRE

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 13, 2001

Mr. McINTYRE. Mr. Speaker, today I want to extend my warmest thanks and my most sincere best wishes to Mayor Joan P. Altman who will be leaving southeastern North Carolina after many years of service to the citizens of Oak Island, Brunswick County, and the State of North Carolina.

Currently serving her fifth term as Mayor of Oak Island, Joan has been an instrumental leader and good steward of the public's interest in a variety of capacities. Mayor Altman currently serves as Chairman of the North Carolina League of Municipalities Energy, Environment, and Natural Resources Committee. She is a member of the N.C. General Assembly Legislative Research Commission Committee on Beach Issues and was a member of the N.C. Estuarine Water Quality Stakeholder Group. In addition to her public service, Joan serves her community in a variety of other ways, including being a member of the Brunswick Community College Board of Trustees, Cape Fear Area United Way Board of Directors, and Cape Fear Council Boy Scouts Board of Directors.

When I think of Joan's commitment to the public good, the words "spirit, sacrifice, and service" come to mind. Joan's positive spirit has always been to do the task at hand—a spirit that inspires others to achieve. Joan's sacrifice in time and commitment has been to make southeastern North Carolina a better place to live and work—a sacrifice that meant doing the right thing and not being concerned with who gets the credit.

Pearl S. Buck once said, "To serve is beautiful, but only if it is done with joy and a whole heart and free mind." Joan, there is no question that your years of service have been the epitome of this statement. Service to others has been the embodiment of your life—service that sets a path for others to follow and that we all should emulate.

As you enter this next stage of your life, I am confident that your talents and energy will continue to be of benefit to many. Through your commitment to your family, and your community, a shining jewel you will continue to be.

Bart Giamatti, the former President of Yale University, said it well in 1987, "Be mindful of what we share and must share; not the least of which is that each of our hopes for a full and decent life depends upon others hoping the same and all of us sustaining each other's hopes * * * If there is no striving for the good life for any of us, there cannot be a good life for any of us."

Joan, on behalf of the citizens of the Seventh Congressional District of North Carolina, thank you so much for the good life you have given to so many. Now, you enjoy the same, and may God's strength, peace and joy be with you always.

TRIBUTE TO JACKIE STILES

HON. ROY BLUNT

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 13, 2001

Mr. BLUNT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a young lady who has brought praise and honor to the sport of basketball and to Southwest Missouri State University by becoming the nation's all-time leading scorer in women's NCAA Division I basketball.

Jackie Stiles has been among the leading scorers in women's college basketball for four years. Her 31 points per game average is the best in the nation this year. She was the leading women's scorer last year and ranked second in the nation in her sophomore year. She was also the country's top scoring freshman in her first year of collegiate competition.

Stiles has scored 20 or more points in college games 86 times, 30-plus points 35 times, 40-plus points 10 times and in two games she broke the 50 point mark. She is one of only two players in NCAA women's basketball history to break the 50 point mark twice.

Stiles broke the 12 year old NCAA Division I career scoring mark of 3,103 points during a contest at Southwest Missouri State University when her Lady Bears squad beat Creighton University Thursday night. Needing only 20 points to eclipse the old mark set by Mississippi Valley State's Patricia Haskins, Stiles finished the Creighton game by netting 30 in laying claim to the title of "Women's Collegiate Basketball Scoring Champ."
